SOM prototypes

The map coordinates are expressed as (row, col) starting from the north-west corner.

The bars indicate the relative level of an input variable with respect to the mean in the training data. Note that the bar heights refer to the preprocessed inputs that are often normalized or otherwise transformed versions of the original data.

The legend that links the bar colors to the variable names is stored in another file.

■	Var0001
■	Var0002
■	Var0003
■	Var0004
■	Var0005
■	Var0006
■	Var0007
■	Var0008
■	Var0009